Winning Hoops Publisher of The Real AAU Basketball magazine Elects the Touch Glove by Classic Success, LLC to Premiere in the magazines 1st Issue

Los Angeles – Classic Success, LLC is pleased to announce that the Touch Glove, a revolutionary scientifically designed Sports Training Glove manufactured by Classic Success, was chosen to premiere The Real AAU's Magazine 1st issue this March, 2009. The Touch Glove will have a full page spread making the product available to hundreds and thousands of AAU coaches and players nationwide.

"We are so excited to be in this 1st issue with The Real AAU," said Andre McCarter, Inventor & owner of Classic Success, LLC the manufacturer of the Touch Glove. "We've been looking for a strategic partner to reach our target market with the Touch Glove, and being able to present our product to the members of AAU allows us to hit our mark. The Touch Glove was created to help players break old habits and create correct new ones through finger tip control and by reaching the youth we will be able to help teach the fundamentals of basketball nationwide."

"By being a part of this 1st Real AAU magazine issue, we will set the standard for sports training products in the market," said Ray Witt, Managing Director of RainMaker Management Consultants, the Touch Glove Master Broker. "Winning Hoops has created a superb 1st issue for The Real AAU, and my staff and I are honored to have the Touch Glove be a part of the Real AAU's continued success."

Mr. Andre McCarter former UCLA college basketball champion and Philadelphia's famous Overbrook High School recent Hall of Fame inductee is the inventor of the TG and Founder of Classic Success, LLC.

The Touch Glove is a revolutionary scientifically designed Sports Training Glove for Basketball, Football, Volleyball, Rugby, and all ball handing sports.
